Latter-Lusby Marriage a Brilliant Social Affair

Ceremony Takes Place in First Methodist Episcopal Church,
Which Is Beautifully Decorated—Reception at Bride's Home to Relatives and Friends

The First Methodist church of Glendale, fragrant with the perfume of many flowers and its churchy severity relieved by long strands of asparagus fern, garlands of bridal wistaria, made a beautiful setting for the marriage of Miss Margaret Lusby and Harold Latter, which was celebrated at 8:30 last evening in the presence of a large company of witnesses.

The general interest manifested in these nuptials was perfectly natural because the principals grew to manhood and womanhood in our city and have been prominent and popular in the social circles in which they moved. The fact that their home will be in the northern part of the state instead of here and their marriage a sort of farewell, was an additional reason for the community's desire to participate in this, the most important event of their lives.

Through the skill and hard work of Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Russell, Miss Kitterman and Mrs. Wilbur Lee, with assistance from girls of the Philaheia class and others, the altar, rostrum and choir loft had been transformed with flowers and greenery. The main aisles through which the bridal party was to advance and retreat had been roped off with smilax and at the end of each aisle, fronting the altar, was a floral pergola draped with wistaria and in which was suspended a wedding bell of white carnations studded with pink sweet peas. Sprays of wistaria and fern graced the altar rail, and at either end was a tall basket illuminated with electric lights and filled with more purple and white wistaria and pink roses. On the altar itself, the same floral combination was more densely massed and centered with a big illuminated basket filled with bridal wreath and peach blossoms. On the rostrum were palms, and in the choir loft, tall stalks of bamboo pointing the way to a charming frieze of ferns and wistaria which overhung the choir loft and screened the lights.

While awaiting the bridal party, Mrs. Randall played softly on the

BLIND ISSUE AN APPEAL TO BLIND

(By International News Service)

VIENNA, April 1.—The industries for the blind in this city, which formerly made it possible for Vienna's thousand blind citizens to support themselves in self respect, have closed down because of the shortage of raw materials with which to work. This has thrown many of the victims into the streets to beg. All sources of public relief having been closed, the blind Viennese this week held a meeting and decided to appeal directly to the blind of America, "who alone can understand and truly appreciate this condition." Their appeal is transmitted through George W. Bakeman, director of the Vienna unit of the American Red Cross.

The appeal, written by Fraulein Theresa Muller, a 17-year-old girl who has been blind since childhood, says:

"Driven to desperation by the condition in which we find ourselves, we appeal to you, our blind brothers and sisters in America, knowing that you alone will understand and appreciate our situation. We, who have known what it was to live in the dark, our hands useless, dependent upon our more fortunate friends, have trained our hands to see for us, and have learned to work, and to take our place in the world again, among those who see. And now our work is taken from us. There are insufficient raw materials for those who have eyes. Nothing is left for us but to beg again in the streets, as the blind did a hundred years ago.

"You, we know, are now overwhelmed with earthly riches. But we know that you, who are our companions in common affliction, will hear our call in your hearts. And it lies in your power to organize some help in your ranks, and intervene on our behalf.

"We are so very poor that we have to beg for everything—for bread and clothes and money. But most of all for materials with which to work.

"If the blind will not hear us where shall we turn? Help us now and the time will surely come when we can reciprocate the kindness and love which you will have shown us."

POPULAR GROCERY CHANGES OWNERS

Everett Gray, manager of the Sebastian grocery at 1127 North Central avenue, has become its proprietor, and will take possession on Monday. Before deciding to buy this market, Mr. Gray made a thorough investigation of conditions in all the cities of the Southland, even going as far north as Fresno. His final conclusion was that Glendale offered the best opportunities.

The new firm will be known as Gray and Gray, Mrs. Gray being a partner with her husband in the enterprise.

Mr. Sebastian's grocery at 145 North Glendale avenue will be much enlarged, for the proprietor has bought the lease of Mrs. Wheeler's bazaar, to the south of his market. He will remove the partition, put in an arch, new fixtures and other innovations, as soon as Mrs. Wheeler has sold out her stock.

GLENDALE BOYS IN GALA DAY CONTEST

Glendale Grammar school pupils are considerably interested in the Gala Day program to be put on at Eagle Rock, Saturday afternoon, on Occidental field. Several schools have accepted the invitation to participate and Intermediate is entering teams of the seventh and eighth grade boys and seventh and eighth grade girls. Colorado and Broadway schools are entering teams of fifth and sixth grade and third and fourth grade boys.

The track meet between Intermediate's team and that of the Pasadena Military Academy which was to have taken place this week has been postponed until Monday afternoon and will take place on Intermediate's field. It will include the regular events with the addition of pole vault. One of the features of the meet will be an exhibition of javlin and discus throwing.

MRS. STILLMAN AWARDED $7500 PER MONTH

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y.,—April 1.—Mrs. James A. Stillman was awarded $7500 alimony per month and $35,000 counsel fee by the decision of Supreme Court Justice Morschauer here today. An additional $12,500 was granted her for additional expenses necessitated by her counter action against her husband's suit for divorce. The now famous letter written by Mrs. Stillman to her husband, president of the National City Bank, which his attorneys characterized as a "confession" written in a moment of "hysteria," was ruled out by Justice Morschauer. The court also ruled out the letters alleged to have been written by Fred Beauvais, Indian guide, to Mrs. Stillman, which fell into the hands of the banker. The temporary alimony of $90,000 a year is the largest amount ever granted in divorce proceedings in any court in the United States, the largest previous sum having been $50,000 a year in the Gould case.

PRESBYTERIAN BUSINESS SESSION

The members of the First Presbyterian church met on Wednesday evening in the annual business session of the congregation. Dr. W. E. Edmonds was selected as presiding officer and R. P. Isitt was chosen clerk.

The officers for the ensuing year were chosen as follows: Deacons, J. W. Cooper, R. D. King, R. C. Kelley, F. W. Harper, N. H. Stanley, G. F. Daugherty, H. C. Rettberg and F. G. Taylor; trustees, T. W. Preston, J. M. Fife, C. E. Boss, J. B. McClellan, T. Weisen and W. S. Perrin; elders, J. E. Colvin, M. P. Harrison, J. Rhea Baker, C. D. McDill and Dr. H. Stadt.

Written reports were presented by representatives of each organization, and each organization also presented a financial report through its treasurer. The year just ended has been the banner year in the history of the congregation. As has been true for years past a fine spirit of loyalty and cooperation pervades the entire organization. More members have been received and more money raised than in any previous year of the congregation's history. Over $4000 has been paid into the regular benevolence channels of the denomination. A liberal and comprehensive budget was adopted for the coming year.

The new church building was discussed at some length. The growth of the Sunday school and other organizations makes the need for increased space imperative at an early date.

P. T. A. PLANS MAY FESTIVAL

Plans for the May festival to be held May 29, formed one of the principal items of the business transacted by the Columbus avenue P. T. A., at yesterday afternoon's session, presided over by the president, Mrs. H. V. Henry.

The voting of money from the association's fund to pay for playground apparatus and new blackboards for the school evidenced the deep interest of the members in the children of the district.

An interesting program followed the business meeting. Mrs. C. H. Peckham sang "Some Little Bird" and "Sylvia," with violin obligato by Mrs. Skow and piano accompaniment by Miss Fritch. She responded to an encore with "Mighty Lak a Rose."

Mrs. Kemper Campbell spoke on juvenile court laws, pointing out the necessity for their being changed, and urging her audience to write to members of the legislature to show their interest in bills concerning this subject which are now pending.

Delegates to the first district convention were appointed, as follows: Mmes. Peckham, Baker, Miller, Ayars; alternates, Mmes. Andree, Piercy, Taylor and Ortha M. Brown.

BURGLARS AT HOME OF T. A. WRIGHT

T. A. Wright's home, 141 North Louise, was broken into last evening, while the family were away and thoroughly ransacked. A nickel-plated ring, ivory manicure set, brown leather suit case, pair men's shoes, pair slippers and several handkerchiefs were among the articles taken.

Protesting Citizens Appear Before Trustees

Consideration of Matters on Which They Ask to Be Heard Deferred Until Next Regular Meeting—Members to Meet as Committee of Whole Monday

Quite an audience was present at the meeting of the city trustees Thursday evening. Some came in the expectation that the zoning ordinance would come up for consideration and for protest against certain recommendations of the zoning committee. Others came to have their say about the Maple street paving. They were informed that the city attorney's draft of a zoning ordinance was not yet ready for submission to the trustees, and that the board would take no action on Maple street until its next regular open meeting, after it had been advised of its powers in the premises by City Attorney Shaw.

ALABAMA MAY BUY PART OF FLORIDA

(By International News Service)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 1.—Sale to the state of Alabama of that portion of western Florida lying west of the Apalachicola river and including the nine counties of Bay, Calhoun, Escambia, Holmes, Jackson, Okaloosa, Santa Rosa, Walton and Washington, is a proposal that will be made to the legislature of Florida when it meets in April, it is authoritatively learned here.

The proposition has been under consideration for a number of years, but had not been taken very seriously until Alabama, at its legislative session during 1919-20, passed an act providing for the annexation of the territory involved, authorizing the appointment of three members to be known as the state boundary commission, to act with a similar Florida commission whenever authorized by the Florida legislature.

Should the legislature here take such action and authorize the sale of the territory the governor of Florida would appoint a commission to meet the Alabama commission and work out the details of the transfer, after which each commission would report back to their respective governors. Then if the Florida legislature of 1923 should ratify the report of the commission the matter would be submitted to the voters of the state in 1924.

REPORTED REVOLT CAUSES A SENSATION

(By International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, April 1.—A sensation was created in the capital when an afternoon newspaper printed a story to the effect that Francisco Villa, the former bandit leader, had again taken up arms against the government. It was reported that his hacienda at Canutillo had been turned into a fortification and that Villa had obtained large supplies of arms and ammunition for joining General Murguía in his "Plan of Saltillo" revolution.

The secretary of war, however, made an investigation and learned that there was no truth in the story. Villa, it has been learned, is ill with pneumonia at Torreón and is not friendly with Murguía because the latter, while a Carranza commander, opposed and pursued the then bandit. Murguía is now in Nuevo Leon.

General A. Gomez, military chief of Tamaulipas and Hunastecas, has reported to the war department that with the rout, apprehension and execution of General Tomas Izquierdo, a rebel, the section has been pacified and that not more than a handful of insurrectionists are now at large. A small detachment is pursuing Gen. Eduardo Hernandez, who recently revolted.

Influential Hungarians, realizing that a continuation of Charles' attempt to regain the Hungarian throne would lead to war against Hungary, have been urging the former king to return to exile. Already four nations have served solemn warnings upon Hungary against the restoration of Charles.

"PAYING THE PIPER" PALACE GRAND

"Paying the Piper"—a George Fitzmaurice production—is the feature picture at the Palace Grand theater today.

The tale depicts the life of the idle rich of New York City, on whom ordinary pleasures pall, because they are surfeited with the good things of life. When poverty strips the characters in the story of all their vain pleasures and delights, they begin to really live and obtain a proper sense of values in life.

The picture has been produced with an exceptionally clever corps of players and the sets are gorgeous. "His Better Half," a comedy special, and cartoons and Kinograms complete the program.

Dynamos Club Banquet and Install Officers

C. A. Brownell, Rev. John Hubbard and Rev. W. E. Edmonds Were the Speakers of the Evening—Music and Singing—One Hundred and Forty Present

The first annual banquet of the Dynamos Club of the Glendale Presbyterian church was held in the church, Thursday evening and in every way was a great success. The doors to the banquet room were thrown open at 7:15, and as the club orchestra played, the guests took their places at the tables which were beautiful in decorations of purple flag lilies and California poppies, with tiny bonbon baskets at each place in the same colors, carrying out the club's colors of purple and gold. The entire room was festooned with crepe paper and on every hand the club's banners and colors were in evidence. Rev. Louis Tinning returned thanks and over 140 people sat down to such a banquet as has never been served before. From the first course of fruit salad served in orange cups to the last course of dessert which was delicious cake and ice cream served in the form of the club's emblem, the Greek Delta with the letter "D" in purple in the center, the entire banquet was all that could be desired to satisfy the inner man. The ladies of the church who prepared the delicious viands and the young ladies of the Therapaya class who so capably served, came in for their share of compliments. During the evening the club orchestra and quartet gave selections, and Joe Rhodes sang. The speakers were: C. A. Brownell, retired advertising manager for the Ford Motor Car Company of Detroit, Mich.; Rev. John Hubbard, superintendent of Men at the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, and Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the church.

C. A. Brownell spoke first, bringing out in a very forceful manner the fact that ambition, initiative, clean thinking and living are necessary for the success of every young man by saying that if a young man would be successful he should look to Jesus, the great example, and no other. Mr. Brownell held his hearers in a wonderful way and his splendid message will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present. The club is much indebted to Jesse Smith, local Ford dealer for his part in securing Mr. Brownell for the evening. The president of the club, Earl Hammond, named the new officers who will take office April 1 and asked Rev. Edmonds to conduct the installation services. In a few well chosen words he admonished the young men to watch their steps, watch their companions, their speech and thoughts and be true to the things for which the club stands, and praying God's richest blessing on them declared those whose names had been called and who were asked to stand, duly elected officers of the Dynamos club. The retiring president, Earl Hammond, told of the achievements of the club during the past six months, it having grown from 25 members to 75 and has accomplished great things. The newly elected president, Dickson Link, spoke briefly of what the club expected to do in the future, putting Christ first of all in their individual lives and going ahead only as they were directed by their Great Example, Fred W. Hoffman, the teacher of the club, then introduced the Rev. John Hubbard, who gave a wonderful message on the differences between incidentals and fundamentals, impressing on the minds and hearts of his hearers the fact that success comes only by putting God first in the life. He quoted from several instances in the Bible where success had come to those who had put God first in their lives and closed by saying, "Put God first, then you will have good success." Rev. Hubbard completely won the hearts of his hearers and brought the banquet to a close with earnest prayer for the success of the Dynamos club. This was one of the largest and best banquets in every way held in the church and the young men should be congratulated for the splendid work they are doing and during the coming six months the club is looking forward to a larger and better work than in the past. The officers installed are: President, Dickson Link; vice president, Bruce Kurtz; secretary and treasurer, Aage Berg; corresponding secretary, Harold Majors; devotional committee, Fred Stofft; athletic, Warren Meeker; social, Roy Mason; social service, Lloyd Culver; flower, Percy Jewell; music, Delmar Wheeler; editor, Earl Hammond.

EXCURSION OF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

One hundred or more high school students, members of Miss Greene's biology classes, and Professor Cookman's science classes, made an excursion to the river yesterday to study animal life.

Birds, snakes, horned toads, lizards and insects were subjects of their study, and the large class manifested great interest, which probably accounted for the remarkably good discipline maintained during the expedition. The students brought back with them a collection of specimens.

This field study was in charge of Professor Alfred Cookman, head of the department of general science and hygiene.

Science students are looking forward to their famous annual science expedition up Mt. Wilson on April 29. The party will ascend the mountain by moonlight, reaching the top in time for breakfast. They will spend the day studying the mountain birds and flowers, and return to Glendale in the late afternoon.

This expedition will also be general, as Professor Cookman, and a number of fathers and mothers will chaperone the party.

CHRISTENING OF ALICE DIXON NIEL

Alice Dixon Niel, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Niel of 360 West Colorado street, was christened on Wednesday at a special service held at noon at St. Mark's Episcopal church. David Todd Gilmore, of Hartford, performed the baptismal ceremony. Rev. Mr. Gilmore was chosen to administer this sacrament to little Alice because he was already bound to this little family by ties of intimate association and tender memories. When her father was a soldier in France during the world war, Mr. Gilmore was chaplain of base hospital 116 over there, of which Mrs. Niel was the nurse in charge.

Another interesting bit of sentiment in connection with Alice's christening is the fact that her godmother, Miss Ellen Le Garde, of Providence, Rhode Island, is an old friend and former school teacher of her father.

After the christening a luncheon was served at the Niel home in honor of the occasion. The small guest of honor comforted herself with dignity becoming the first to have the pleasure of the affair were Rev. and Mrs. David Todd Gilmore, and two little sons, the godmother, Miss Le Garde, Mrs. H. O. Holbrook, Mrs. Mortimer Baker, Miss Smith, Miss Bell and two hosts.

Protesting Citizens Meet City Trustees

Referred to city manager for checking and report.

City Recorder's Report

The report of City Recorder Lowe showed receipts of $688 for the month of March.

Progress of Water Improvements

Engineer Lynch reported relative to the big reservoir on Verdugo road that the rough grading was about finished and that cast iron pump and drain were being placed. He invited members of the board to inspect the work. Relative to the pumping plant, he stated that the building had been extended for the new pump, the foundation was in and the pump and motor should have been here by now but had been delayed. He made the significant statement that the capacity of the city's pumps when completed will represent 990 horsepower in motors, the biggest unit in Southern California. He stated that the reservoir on Vine is about three-fourths excavated, that no pipe has been laid and the pumping plant has not been started yet.

The ordinance ordering the opening of Stanley avenue was adopted. An ordinance establishing grades on Milford, Doran, Chester, Concord, and several other streets, was offered and referred to the city attorney.

Under the head of new business, there was some discussion of methods by which the quality of the city's water could be improved. Mr. Watson stated that all dead ends had been ordered flushed out.

Swimming Pool

Trustee Lapham brought up the dis- appointment the children of the city are experiencing in the failure of the bond issue for a swimming pool, and moved that an election be called June 28 for the purpose of voting bonds to provide a swimming pool and to complete the purchase of Kenilworth park. Carried.

Garfield Avenue Improvement

Engineer Hill reported that 31 per cent of property frontage on Garfield avenue between Brand and Glendale avenue had petitioned for the improvement of that street, and the city engineer was instructed to draft a resolution of intention, to be submitted at the next regular meeting.

Southern Pacific Crossing

One of the communications of the city manager concerned a proposition from the chief engineer of the Southern Pacific, to establish a crossing at Gardena avenue, to be paid for and maintained by the city and also guard by a flagman if necessary. Referred to City Attorney Shaw with instructions to secure a ruling from the railroad commission from the city manager which concerned correspondence with Mr. Whalen, superintendent of the Southern Pacific company, relative of the paving of its tracks over the west roadway on Brand boulevard, was referred to the committee of the whole to be taken up on Monday night, and the city manager was instructed to invite Mr. Hayward, chairman of the highways committee of the Chamber of Commerce, to be present at that time.

C. OF C. COMMITTEE MEETS

Members of the building committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of which J. G. Huntley is chairman, are meeting today at 12 o'clock at the Goodyer cafe on Central avenue.

NEW EFFORTS IN PLAYGROUND WORK

Mrs. E. E. Harwood and her assistants in playground work at Central avenue school are developing some unique things. The grounds cover about five acres on which are some beautiful trees which give it quite a park-like aspect and afford plenty of room for sports. Quite often, Mrs. Harwood says, they have a "baby day" when pupils are permitted to bring their little brothers and sisters and entertain them from 3 to 4:30. This is a good spirit to develop in the children, who seem to enjoy their stunts as hosts and hostesses to the youngsters, the babies have a good time, and the mothers are relieved to that extent.

At that school 40 girls, divided into four teams, are playing Captain Ball, quite similar to basketball except that the basket is done away with and a catcher is stationed where the basket should be to catch the ball. A fine feature of the game is that when either side scores, the players change places. Each girl therefore has a chance in each station.

Wednesday night an amusing game was staged that drew many spectators, adults as well as children. The boys challenged the girls and during play diverted the onlookers by monkey-shines, such as turning handspins on the bases. The contest ended in a score of 9 to 42 in favor of the boys. Russell Lavelle, a graduate from Central Avenue, who is now at Intermediate, and Wilbur Logan of West Glendale were umpires. The game lasted an hour and 20 minutes.

The effort of the directors is to make the playground serve the whole community in that part of town as far as possible, particularly the little children.

MOTHER HAD STRONG GROUNDS FOR KICK

The following story is told of a certain school in central New York. Dr. L., the health officer, had just made the customary physical examination and filled out the various health certificates.

One afternoon he received a visit from an irate mother.

"I should like to know," she said belligerently, "what you mean by calling my boy 'a poor nut'?"

"Madam," said the astonished physician, "I haven't an idea what you are talking about. To the best of my knowledge I have never applied the 'poor' you mention to any person."

"It's down in black and white," continued his visitor unappeased. "My D— school, and it's on his health card as plain as can be, 'Poor Nut.'"

The light of comprehension dawned on the bewildered doctor. He smiled.

"Ah—I see! 'Poor Nut,' my dear madam, is merely an abbreviated way of saying 'poor nutrition.'"

ANTICIPATES LARGE CROWD AT MUSICAL

Indications are that the high school auditorium will be crowded to capacity this evening, when the Glendale Music Club will be hosts to the citizens of Glendale at a program of music by American composers.

Following the program there will be a reception to the artists taking part, as announced in yesterday's issue of the Daily Press.

Mrs. Vivian Webb is a member of the reception committee and Miss Colvin Cable, Calvin Whiting, Alex. Mitchell, Alma Gibbs and Miss Gertrude Champlain will preside over the punch bowls.

The program will be given at 8 o'clock and there is no admission fee; everyone is cordially invited.

NEW Y. P. S. C. E. SOCIETY ORGANIZED

The young people of the Central Christian church met last night and organized a Y. P. S. C. E. Society. The following officers were elected: President, Margaret Overton; vice president, Nell Liggett; secretary, Kathryn Weising; treasurer, Willard Strook. Lookout, social, spiritual, missionary and prayer meeting committees were appointed.

This now makes two societies at the Central church, meeting every Sunday evening at 6:30 p. m.

WOMEN ARE BUYING NEW VEILS, NOT HATS

(By International News Service) LONDON, April 1.—Women have been caught by a new temptation—they are buying, not new spring hats, but new spring veils.

Hats they may be buying, but the veils they must buy, and often the veils are costlier than the hats that they cover.

They are of the widest range in pattern and design and range from embroidered lace to gold thread trimmed with molyer fur or gold rings.

WYOMING HAS FIRST OF WOMEN JURORS

(By International News Service) LARAMIE, Wyo., April 1.—Mrs. N. A. Heath, whose husband recently died in Ogden, Utah, has been revealed as the only surviving member of the first woman jury in the United States. The jury was drawn in Laramie in 1870 and served throughout a full term of court.

RESPONSIBLE POSTS TO YOUNG MEN

(By International News Service) LONDON, April 1.—All responsible positions should be in the hands of young men.

That, in brief, is the gospel preached by Mr. A. Burtenshaw, J. P., the 80-year-old chairman of the Hailsham Water company.

Mr. Burtenshaw advises the shareholders to "sack" himself and his fellow co-directors and put young men in their places, because:

Age brings a failure of faculties essential to success.

Old men have not the necessary mental and physical alertness.

They have a growing prejudice against new discoveries; and

Are given to garrulity instead of action.

Statement Challenged

This doctrine, however, finds a staunch opponent in Sir James Cantlie, the famous specialist, who has declared to the world that old age is a pose.

"None of Mr. Burtenshaw's conclusions ought to be true," he declares. "An old man need not lose his mental and physical alertness, nor the faculties essential to success."

"He should not be prejudiced against new discoveries—and very often he isn't."

"It is true a young man may have the best of ideas, but he hasn't the experience to bring them to a successful issue. We hear a lot about the hardened arteries of the man past middle age, but the man who strives to retain his health isn't to be hampered by hardened arteries."

"I am in my 70th year, and I am still responsible for bringing into effect my own new ideas."

The Best Man for the Job

"As a matter of fact I dread the arrival of a new idea, because I never have any peace until I have translated it into practice."

"The best man for a really responsible position is the man who has the experience which can only come with age plus a determination to remain active."

HUNGARY ASKS FOR MONARCHY

(By Newton C. Parke) I. N. S. Staff Correspondent PARIS, April 1.—The return of Emperor Charles to the throne of Hungary will be the price demanded by the Hungarian government for aid in repelling the expected bolshevik offensive this spring or summer, according to reliable information obtained here. The attitude taken by the allies toward this request will be determined by the power with which the Reds launch their offensive and the consequent necessity for large contingents to stop them from overrunning Central Europe.

All advices received in Paris agree that the Hungarians still favor the monarchical form of government, despite the trend toward democratic governments in nearly every other country on the globe. The reaction that followed the failure of Bela Kuhn's soviet regime shows no signs of waning and the majority of the people seem to oppose republican government at least until Europe's affairs are more settled.

Charles continues to be the popular choice for ruler of Hungary. He directs a lively propaganda from his retreat in Switzerland and has a well-built political organization ready to get to work at any time he returns to his former empire.

Only fear of what the allies would do in case he went back to Budapest prevents Hungarians from recalling her former ruler. Like Bulgaria Hungary is exceedingly anxious to get back into the good graces of her former enemies in order to reestablish herself economically. They fear that Charles' return without allied sanction would result in the abrogation of the recently negotiated commercial treaty with France and the withholding of arrangements for financial support.

THREE PERSONS ARE REPORTED DEAD

(By International News Service) YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 1.—Three persons are reported dead and 15 are said to have been injured, more or less seriously, in an explosion of sewer gas here today.

Police and firemen are working feverishly in an effort to extricate the wounded from the wreckage of the building which was occupied by two families.

SIGNS CONTRACT TO COACH SPORTS

(By International News Service) SPOKANE, Wash., April 1.—Chas. E. Dorais, Notre Dame coach in 1919, who directed the Gonzaga University football team here last season, today signed a contract to coach all sports at Gonzaga during the next three years.

SLOVAKIA THREATENS WAR ON HUNGARY

(By International News Service) BERLIN, April 1.—Slovakia is threatening to go to war against Hungary unless former King Charles is expelled immediately, according to the following dispatch from Vienna today:

"The Czecho-Slovakia minister at Vienna has sent an ultimatum to Hungary to expel ex-Kaiser Charles. Otherwise Czecho-Slovakia will consider it cause for war. Similar action, it is expected, will be taken at once by Roumania and Jugoslavia. It is reported that Swiss opinion is that Charles abused the rights of asylum in that country and that Switzerland will forbid his return. Belief prevails that Charles will go to Spain."

SIX POLICEMEN ARE REPORTED KILLED

(By International News Service) LONDON, April 1.—Six policemen were reported killed and 14 wounded in a sanguinary battle with Sinn Feiners at Rosscarberry barracks today, according to a Central News dispatch from Cork.

The Sinn Feiners were said to have suffered heavy casualties.

It was impossible to confirm the report or to get any additional details owing to the fact that all the wires from Rosscarberry had been cut. Rosscarberry had been the scene of violent fighting between black and tans and republicans in the past.

ULTIMATUM TO RETURN TO WORK

(By FRANK E. MASON) I. N. S. Staff Correspondent BERLIN, April 1.—Fresh clashes between communists and German security police were reported from the great Rhineland industrial belt today. "The employers throughout all Germany have issued an ultimatum to the workers to return to work before midnight tonight, otherwise they will be dismissed."

The Reds attempted to blow up the Oranien bridge in this city, but the attempt was frustrated.

HOW IT WORKED OUT

"I sent Josh to college," said Farmer Cortnosel, "so that he'd have the advantage of a better education than I had."

"How did it work out?" "Josh overdoes his gratitude. He's all the time showin' off his intellectual superiority so as to make me feel that I got my money's worth."

IMPORTANT ANNUAL CHURCH MEETING

Tropico Presbyterians Dine and Receive Reports of Year's Work

The annual meeting of the Tropico Presbyterian church, which began with a dinner, was a very nice affair. It took place in the banquet hall of the church at 6:30 Wednesday evening and the flower-decked tables were a pretty sight. There was a low table for the little folks, a table of larger size for young people, and then three long tables set with places for adults. It will be seen that it was a very representative gathering, the oldest member of the congregation, Henry Meyers, who not long ago celebrated his 88th birthday, and little Stephen Douglas Adams, who is about six months old, being present. A very fine supper was served by the hospitality committee of the women's society, and a delightful social hour followed it.

Reports from officers of the various departments and organizations of the church were then advanced and proved in many respects in advance of any reports that have been turned in an annual meeting in the history of the church. The report of benevolences was particularly good and embodied a record of $1700 given to various causes in which the church is interested.

The financial reports of the organizations of the church were also excellent, all showing balances in their treasuries. This prosperity flowered in a gift to Mr. Rider, pastor of the church, of $100, which he will doubtless find many pleasant ways of spending.

Reports from the Sunday school, of which Edgar Fry is superintendent, were very good, and Mrs. S. E. Brown, who has been superintendent of the primary department for 13 years, was given a rising vote of thanks. Mrs. Brown also made the financial report for the women's missionary society, which has contributed $256 to missions during the year.

Mrs. Server, secretary of the ladies' aid, gave the report for that organization which has earned for its treasury during the past year, over $300. Miss Phoebe Snell gave the report for the Christian Endeavor, which has given larger missionary offerings this year than ever before.

Pastor Rider closed his report with a word of exhortation to the congregation to make the most of the two great opportunities that are before it for spiritual help, the Brown evangelistic meetings, soon to open, and the great Christian Endeavor convention to be held in Glendale in June.

Plans discussed for the coming year's work include the usual vacation Bible school for children.

FEATS OF THE "FEATURE" STORY

Time was (and it's not so long ago as not to be within the memory of some of us not so very ancient) that newspapers were arrogantly masculine, concerning themselves almost entirely with subjects fit only for the rugged intelligence of men, and offering to feminine readers only a fashion note or two and an occasional impractical recipe; but those benighted days are a thing of the past and the great American metropolitan daily now appeals to the women of the country in headlines of fervid feeling.

Only readers incapable of understanding the profundities these "feature stories" sound, the great soul-secrets their probings bring to light, will be perplexed as to why their headlines should be written in the interrogation mode: "Can the College Woman Make a Good Mother?" "Came a Movie Vamp Really Love?" "Is the Nagging Wife Normal?" When we have delved into the subtleties of articles like these, when we have taxed our minds to the utmost to understand these deep questions, then, indeed, have we mastered the psychology of sex.

There is a benign nobility in the handling of these intimate and vital topics by the specialists employed by the press for this delicate work. Grave fears are forever allayed when we read, "The development and training of a woman's talents does not unfit her for motherhood; on the contrary, such training tends to make of her a more intelligent mother." We marvel, as we read, at the clever originality of the thought, even while we hug to our hearts the fair promise it contains. To be assured that the greatest screen vamp known to fame is in reality a gentle, loving soul, whose greatest delight in private life is to teach a Sunday school class, removes a cloud of dark doubt from our minds. Why sweat and groan under the weary load of trifles, such as a recreation center for Glendale or a swimming pool for the children, when the great questions of life have been so succinctly set forth for our edification?

Some of the heretical scapegraces among us, indeed, note that these searching soul-queries are seldom propounded about the sterner sex. It seems an insignificant matter whether higher education makes them any poorer sticks of parents than most of their less educated brothers are, or whether the nagging husband is just a common species of the genus grinch or a "high class moron" or an egotistical idiot. One feature story writer, indeed, has had the temerity to query: "Will Men's Fashions Revert to the Doublet and Hose?"

The imagination of the boldest shrinks, however, from the awful possibilities of such a query. Imagine, if you dare, the real estate men, the bankers, the newspaper editors and the rest of the elite of Glendale's business world swaggering up and down Brand boulevard or Broadway in doublet and hose!

WILL THE "REDS" OVERTHROW EUROPE?

That has been a disquieting question for some time and recent developments have not allayed the spectres it calls up. A document was seized in France the other day which revealed a well-matured plan for the overthrow of the governments of Spain, Italy and France. The date for this event was definitely fixed. It is staged for May 1, 1921. To support the organization, working for this ambitious anarchistic scheme, the transmission of funds was effected through an American organization with European headquarters in Paris and branches in Berlin and Vienna. Soviets have been organized throughout France, the police say, and they are ready to take over railroads, banks, transportation and all civil services. The "Reds" are doomed to failure unless the people of the better order refuse to exert themselves, to enlighten, inspire and help the masses with true patriotism and real religion. The "Red" is an atheist and is trying to achieve his ends by violence and a reign of terror.

AN ELABORATE PINK LUNCHEON

Numbered among the charming and interesting social affairs of the week was an elaborate luncheon presided over with Mrs. George G. Neil of 300 Colorado boulevard as hostess. The six-months-old daughter of the Neils was the inspiration for this pretty affair, for Alice Dixon was baptized and the Rev. Dr. David Todd Gilman came all the way from Hanford, California, to read the service.

Plate service was arranged for Miss Ellen Le Garde, who acted as sponsor and godmother. Miss Le Garde is from Providence, Rhode Island, and will visit a few more weeks in California before continuing her world tour, going to China and Japan from here, then on to India. Other guests seated at the table beautified with pink sweet peas and maidenhair fern, included Dr. and Mrs. Gilman, Mmes. Benjamin Holbrook, M. Baker and Miss Kate White of Los Angeles; Miss Arline Gaess of Glendale; the Masters David Todd Gilman and William Phelps Gilman, together with Mr. and Mrs. Neil.

PRESIDENT TO UNTANGLE SNARL

By DAVID M. CHURCH
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, April 1.—President Harding today took up the difficult task of untangling the railroad snarl.

The President conferred with Judge R. M. Barton, chairman of the railroad labor board and Chairman Clark of the interstate commerce commission. With these two officials the President planned to make a thorough study of the present railroad situation.

One of the first questions which the President is understood to have taken up is reduction of wages for railroad employees and reduction of freight and passenger rates for the railroads, seeking the views of the two chairmen on these questions.

Rail executives are understood to have already laid before the President extensive arguments showing the necessity for reduction of wages and the President desires data from Judge Barton as to the views of the railroad board on the subject. Chairman Clark is understood to be prepared to outline the situation with regard to possibility of rate reductions.

ARRIVES SAFELY; OVERDUE NINE DAYS

(By International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The four-masted schooner Fred J. Wood, in command of Capt. Harry Ashbury, with his wife and nine members of the crew, is safe in this port today from the Solomon Islands after being battered and tossed on a rough sea for nine days without a rudder. The small boat, her rudder, sails, lifeboats and rigging gone, kept from foundering only by continuous working of the pumps by the crew. During the time the craft was on the outer rim of a hurricane, which is thought to have been responsible for the loss of the Harvester and the three-masted schooner with her decks awash, sighted off the coast of Japan on February 24.

CALL FOR FEDERATION OF LABOR CONVENTION

(By International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 1.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor in a call issued today for the forty-first annual convention of the organization, to open in Denver June 13, announces the convention of 5,000,000 workers will take steps to "withstand and overcome the bitter antagonism now so rampant to undermine and to destroy the great constructive force in our republic, the American labor movement."

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1921

HONORED BY THE PROGRAM COMMITTEE

The Tuesday Afternoon Club has been honored by the program committee of the District Convention of Federated Clubs which meets in Pomona, on April 19, 20 and 21.

The club has been asked to give a half-hour's Shakespeare program on the first day of the convention, probably this subject was chosen because of the fact that Shakespeare's birthday anniversary is so near the date of the convention—and very possibly, too, the fame of the talented women of the Tuesday Afternoon Club has spread abroad.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the club has given the Shakespeare section charge of the affair and they are preparing something that will be a credit to the club and to Glendale.

MOBILIZE A BIG FORCE AT HAWAII

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Army chiefs are insistent that the mobilizing of reinforcements aggregating 125 per cent for the defenses of Hawaii and nearly 300 per cent of the Panama canal zone is being perfected without reference to any other nation as a probable or possible enemy. But it has developed that the war department started its plans when it became apparent that negotiations between American Ambassador Morris and Japanese Ambassador Shidehara were being attended with little progress and when Jingoism became rampant in Japan.

There are now 12,000 officers and men at Hawaii and 7000 at Panama. These forces will be increased to 27,000 at each place.

Staff officers read with interest the article by Joseph Timmons in the Hearst newspapers setting forth the results of his investigation of Japanese activities in Hawaii and the former German islands in the North Pacific. They pointed out that this article confirmed recent dispatches from Washington stating that the Caroline islands and the Marshall group were being fortified by Japan and that the Japanese had exacted pledges of allegiance from the people.

In addition to these developments, it was cited that as the island of Yap lies just southwest of the American outpost at Guam, neither the military nor the diplomatic relations of Japan and the United States could be made any more cordial by Japan's insistence of her right to fortify Yap.

The sending of reinforcements to Hawaii and Panama will continue until congress interferes. There are no intimations that congress will intervene, however, especially in the light of news from all quarters as to the activities of Japan.

The Hawaiian island of Oahu, it was explained by army strategists, is the immediate key to the situation. As they put it, "whoever holds Oahu can hold the islands." None of the others, however, is important in the event of war.

It was admitted that a weakness had been found in the former theory as to the safety of Oahu from external attack. The defenses at Pearl harbor have long been regarded as impregnable against sea attack. It was also thought that the little hill or mountain range on the sides of the island opposite Pearl harbor could not be crossed by any force to take the fortifications in rear and flank.

That theory has been exploded, according to a report at the war department, which shows that when the American navy held maneuvers to determine that point it was demonstrated that the hills could be crossed. American soldiers crossed them easily. An attack from that direction, it is admitted, would be fatal to a land fortification whose 12 and 14 inch guns are fixed to fire seaward. One suggestion, which probably will be carried out, is that the reinforcements shall consist of mobile artillery for coast defense at Oahu.

PRIMROSE PATH HAD BECOME ROUGH

(By International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Dissonant because the primrose path had become rough and difficulties loomed ahead, Harold Rose, 20, who says he is the son of M. J. Rose, millionaire Akron, Ohio, furniture manufacturer, purchased a revolver and, according to the police, resolved to end it all. But he made a farewell engagement with a girl he had met in San Francisco and she, finding out his purpose, by a clever ruse, turned him over to a detective. Today Rose is in jail awaiting word from his father.

"GLEN AND DALE"

Glen and Dale would be wondering how to feed the thousands, June 25 to 29, if they didn't feel we had chosen someone who was equal to the task. It will be some job! Mrs. H. W. Yarik, ably assisted by Mrs. T. A. Wright, whom she has chosen for her vice-chairman, is responsible for the commissary department of the Christian Endeavor convention. All local eating houses will be taxed to their capacity so these ladies have received the help of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, and the Ladies' Aid or similar organization of each Glendale church. These societies have chosen captains who will represent them in this work. Glen and Dale wish to heartily thank all these ladies for their kind cooperation. We know they will feel amply repaid by the satisfied smiles of our guests.

We feel sure we will have a large number of visitors, for railroad officials told Howard Brown that they moved more delegates to Christian Endeavor conventions in California than to any other state convention.

LONGEST VOYAGE EVER UNDERTAKEN

(By International News Service)

NORFOLK, Va., April 1.—What is said to be the longest voyage ever undertaken by submarines, unattended by a fleet or squadron since Germany sent "U" boats to the United States during the war, will be attempted by ten American submarines next month. Ten underwater craft of the "R" class will leave here on April 21 for San Francisco. Final tests will begin Monday in Chesapeake bay operating from a base at Yorktown. The submarines will pass through the Panama canal on their voyage westward and will be permanently stationed on the Pacific coast. They will be accompanied by the "mother-ship" Camden. After leaving here the first stop will be made at Key West.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY IS ORGANIZED

On Tuesday evening of this week a meeting was held in the guild hall of St. Mark's Episcopal church and a chapter of the Girls' Friendly organized. Mrs. Ernest M. Parker, branch secretary, acted as chairman, calling the meeting to order.

This is not a denominational organization, merely under the supervision of the Episcopal church, and girls of any denomination are welcome to attend the meetings, which will be held in the guild hall of the church every Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The object is to encourage good fellowship among the girls of Glendale.

Officers elected to serve during this year are: Louise Ayala, president; Esther Veitch, vice president; Lorna Galer, secretary, and Mabelle Evarts, treasurer.

At next Tuesday's meeting the president will appoint committee chairmen.

Mrs. Parker has elected four associate members to assist the girls. Mrs. Helen Campbell as parliamentary director; the others include Mrs. R. E. Downing, Mrs. Howland and Harriet Wells Hopkins.

After the reading of the by-laws, it was decided that the first meeting of the month would be for business transactions; second, welfare; third, educational and the fourth, social.

The organization extends an invitation to all Glendale girls who might be interested in what it hopes to accomplish.

ACCEPTS NEW POSITION

Stafford Harlow, who has been so popular with the patrons of the Glendale office of the Automobile Club of Southern California, of which he has had charge, has left the service to accept a position with McCormick & McPherson Steamship Company. Having had an opportunity to acquaint himself with the overland roads he evidently now wants to learn something of the waterways. His place here has been taken by M. B. Towman who has been in the Imperial valley for several years and in charge of the club's office at El Centro. He will live here and thinks Glendale is a wonderfully pretty city where he will find life very pleasant in spite of the many friends he has left in the Imperial.

CONSIDER SCHOOL CONGESTION

At a mass meeting held March 3 at the Intermediate school to consider ways and means of relieving the grave situation occasioned by the crowded condition of Glendale schools, the chairman, David Black, was empowered to appoint a committee to make a survey of the immediate and future needs of Glendale schools and report at another mass meeting, to convene at the call of the chairman. The committee appointed consists of nine members appointed by the chairman, and in addition to the president of each Parent-Teacher association or her representative, making a membership of 19. Members of this committee are Oliver O. Clark, chairman; Roy L. Kent, C. H. Crawford, C. A. Cole, H. V. Henry, George H. Moore, William C. Wattles, Frances Wilkinson, Charles L. Chandler, Mrs. Peter Diederich, Mrs. P. E. Horner, Mrs. E. B. Moore, Mrs. W. R. Halstead, Mrs. Amy J. Campbell, Mrs. Gladys Esselman, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. H. V. Brown, Harry Hague and Frank Ayars. This committee has held several meetings and has divided its members into subcommittees to investigate different phases of the school situation. At the final meeting of the committee, held at the Intermediate school last evening, the findings of these subcommittees were thoughtfully considered. The deliberation resulted in the committee's voting the following recommendations, to be presented to the mass meeting which will probably be held some time next week:

The erection of an Intermediate school in the southern part of the city; additions to the Acacia street, Colorado street, Central avenue, Doran street, Pacific avenue schools and the establishment of a two-room unit for Verdugo canyon residents; the moving of certain district boundary lines to relieve schools where additional rooms are not provided; the enlarging of the grounds of certain schools.

AVIATORS EN ROUTE TO L. C. BRAND FIELD

Glendaleans have been considerably entertained this morning watching the flight of visitors to the luncheon which is being given today by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brand at the private club house on their estate in the foothills. Only guests who come by the air route will be admitted. But it is evident that a numerous company of bird men and their ladies will come that way for the skies at times suggested a flight of wild geese going north. One fleet of seven in interesting formation was observed with plenty of trailers in single ships. It will be an event unique in the annals of aerial travel and the hosts themselves will not know the extent of their guest list until arrivals are registered, for the invitations were sent to all the aviation fields of Southern California and to the air service of the army and navy.

MISS RUTH WILSON GUEST OF HONOR

Miss Ruth Wilson, a prospective bride, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given Thursday by Mrs. Rohr at 608 East Orange Grove avenue. The prettily appointed table was centered with a basket bouquet of white iris, pink roses and bridal wreath, the place cards representing brides. Rose baskets filled with pink and white mints constituted the favors. The guest list included Miss Dorothy Hunt and her mother, Mrs. D. W. Hunt, Mrs. Bertha Wilson, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Charles Morse, little Mary Rohr and Miss Wilson. After the luncheon was over and the plates cleared away, while guests still lingered about the table, the hostess brought in a tray covered with gifts, which was placed before Miss Wilson. Its lovely burden consisted entirely of pretty things for the trousseau of the guest of honor. A social afternoon followed.

NEW RESIDENTS ARE EN ROUTE

R. E. Taylor of 220 Wadsworth avenue, New York, is expected to arrive in Glendale about April 15 with his family, to make his future home here, the family consisting of Mrs. Taylor, a son and daughter of high school age. Through the Glendale Homes Company, Mr. Taylor has bought the former home of Hal Davenport at 1239 South Glendale avenue. The realty firm mentioned has let a contract for painting, remodeling and putting the house in order before the Taylors arrive. Their furniture is now enroute. The same firm has sold a lot on Chester place, fronting on Myrtle in the Kenilworth tract to Miss N. K. Smith, who plans to build upon it in the near future a home for herself and mother.

FINE "PEPPY" DRILL OF "GLENDAL'S OWN"

The drill of Glendale's Own Company of California National Guards on the high school field Thursday night, was an interesting and profitable affair for all participants and attendance was good. Major Vestal, assisted by one of the company's officers gave instruction in sighting and aiming exercises. Among the visitors were Major Cotton of Los Angeles and two sergeants.

It is expected that the encampment announced yesterday will be held at Santa Cruz.

Recruiting has been resumed and there is little doubt but that the local company will soon attain its maximum strength of 93.

Latter-Lusby Marriage Brilliant Social Affair

great organ, Dubois' "Nuptial Song," and then passed into the accompaniments for Miss Isabelle Isgrig, who sang, "I Love You Truly," "I Love Thee" (Greig), and "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" (Saint-Saens).

When the organ took up the familiar strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, all eyes centered on the left aisle. First to come were the four ushers—Archie Latter and Bert Flood, cousins of the groom, Verne Wilson of Pasadena, and Evans Cheney of Los Angeles. As they advanced to their stations, Rev. Clyde M. Crist, the officiating clergyman, came forward from the left and the groom and best man (Earl Brown of Los Angeles), from the right. Then came the four lovely bridesmaids, all in picture hats of silver cloth, their taffeta gowns making a rainbow of color. Martha Ray was in green, Muriel Turner in orchid, Eunice Peart in blue and Doris Latter, sister of the groom, in yellow. Their arm bouquets were of sweet peas and pink roses.

Following this picture of girlish beauty came little Donald Lusby, nephew of the bride, carrying the wedding ring in the cup of a white lily. Waunita Emery, cousin of the bride and maid of honor, came next, charmingly gowned in pink taffeta with picture hat to match and carrying Columbia roses.

Then little Jean Tyrrell in lavender, organdie and scarf, came down the aisle and scattered flowers in the path of the beautiful bride as she advanced on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Very lovely she was in her wedding gown of white satin garnished with bride's lace, the billowy folds of her trailing wedding veil weighted with orange blossoms, her feet—so happily treading the flowery way—shod in wonderful slippers of silver cloth decorated with pink ostrich tips and rhinestone buckles. Of bride roses and lilies of the valley, with just a suggestion of pink, was her shower bouquet.

Upon a white satin cushion they knelt while the solemn words which made these twain one, were spoken. Then the organ pealed forth the Mendelssohn wedding march, which served as a recessional, and the wedding party was conveyed to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lusby, at 116 East Park avenue, where about 50 relatives and close friends gathered to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Latter and where refreshments were served. Misses Olive Bell and Josephine Emery presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. C. R. Lusby, Mrs. Frank Parsons, Misses Doris Ingledue and Leone Shattuck assisting with the serving.

Here too, was a lovely floral adornment of pink and white roses, bridal wreath and sweet peas. Of course, the refreshments included handsome cakes for the bride and groom, which were cut in time-honored fashion.

In due time the bride slipped away to exchange her wedding finery for a dark blue going-away gown, with which she wore gray suede pumps, gloves and hat, brightened with a touch of orange.

There were the customary obstacles to getting away with all their belongings, which were somehow frustrated through the hospitality and connivance of the neighbors. They did not altogether escape the rice and old shoes, but at last the exit was accomplished. The place in which they will spend their honeymoon has not been revealed but their journey will end at Oakland, where their home will be furnished with such a wonderful array of gifts as has rarely been bestowed on a Glendale bride. There were pictures of every kind, silver of every description, cut glass, engraved glass, china, linen, electrical appliances, beautiful trays, vases, clocks and other things too numerous to mention.

While they were the recipient of so much, Mr. and Mrs. Latter also had made gifts, the groom's present to the bride being a very beautiful necklace of pearls. To her quartette of maids the bride had given sterling silver sugar spoons for their hope chests and to her maid of honor a sterling silver olive fork. To his best man the groom gave a handsome scarf pin.

The mother of the bride, though a little tearful at the thought of separation from her only daughter, made a charming hostess at the reception, sweetly gowned in the gray georgette crepe, with a corsage bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley, which she had worn at the church.
